

My rivers of the world factfile

Research a great river and write your own factfile about it. You can use these questions to help you.

Name of river:

Length of river:

Location (which country or countries does it flow through):

Where does it have its source and mouth?

Interesting features:

Does it flow through any big cities?

What animals live in or near the river?